

CHURCH TOURS IN 2012

Tour 1: Saturday 12 May, conducted by Richard Genochio. 12 May, leaving from Royston Station visiting Hauxton, Harlton, Orwell, Guiden Morden and Ashwell.

Cost £24.

Tour 2: Saturday 16 June, led by Dr Donald Buttress, former Surveyor to Westminster Abbey and five cathedrals. Tour aims to include visits to the Charterhouse Chapel, where Dr Buttress has done important work, St Bartholomew the Great, the splendidly restored All Saints, Margaret St, and one other central church. Tour cost £13, but participants will make their own way in London by Zone 1 Travelcard.

Tour 3: Saturday 22 September, led by Archie Russell. It will be by coach, beginning at Biggleswade railway station. He has titled it "Steeple churches of North Bedfordshire and the former Huntingdonshire" to include Pertenhall, Little Staughton and Kimbolton. Cost £24.

How to apply:

Tickets are £24 for tours 1 and 3 and include transport by coach from the designated point. Tour 2 is £13 and because it involves churches in central London, travel will be by public transport (a Zone 1 Travelcard is recommended).

If all three tours are booked together, then the cost is £57, a saving of £4.

Please apply supplying name, address and e-mail with your cheque (separate from your cheque for the study day), payable to the Beds and Herts Historic Churches Trust, and a stamped addressed envelope for each trip to:

Mrs Ann Banham, 3 Bury Farm,
High Street,
Kimpton, Herts. SG4 8RH

Applications will not be responded to until after 14 March

There is a tours application coupon on the back page of Trust News, downloadable from our website: www.bedshertshct.org.uk